Statement

I'm a charismatic and hardworking individual from Germany.

I'm here to make my hands dirty
- So i'm the person you are looking for!

I apply for this Job, because I want to get the real Australia experience and do something completely different to my work in germany. So for me the Fruitpicker/Farmworking/whatever Job is more an experience and enrichment than work.

In Germany I could find experience in So I know what it means to work 12 hours just running and make my hands dirty! (hier kurz beschreiben warum ihr für den Job geeignet seit, welche Erfahrungen ihr mitbringt. Wir haben auch bissl gelogen und behauptet wir haben Traktor Erfahrungen :D)

I have no problem to work straight away. Happy to hear from you
